Önder Kılıçoğlu

AOTT Editorial Board

With this opportunity, we would like to commemorate our beloved past editor-in-chief Prof Önder Kılıçoğlu,<sup>1</sup> who passed away last year in October. We are grateful to him for his contributions to our orthopedic community, to the science of orthopedic surgery and traumatology both in our country and globally, to The Turkish Association of Orthopaedics and Traumatology and The Turkish Society of Orthopaedics and Traumatology which both are the official associations of Acta Orthopaedica Traumatologica et Turcica (AOTT), for the support and teachings he gave to all of us, for the deep traces he left in all of our minds and hearts, and for the efforts he gave and the marks he left to the last three decades of AOTT, the main scientific orthopedic journal of our community, until the last moment his health allowed. May he rest in peace.
